A new home away from home has emerged, and that means everything for anyone currently living in Singapore. To fill the void that travel restrictions have posed, staycations are the only plausible way to feel like we're on holiday. The latest newbie? The Clan Hotel Singapore, in the heart of Central Business District, where you can be closely connected to the city, specifically the veritable enclave of Telok Ayer and Chinatown.

"The Clan Hotel Singapore offers carefully curated touchpoints and services that will unveil stories of the vicinity and local culture. It brings to the fore the history of clans around Amoy Street, where our forefathers helped Chinese settlers make Singapore their home," remarked Mr Arthur Kiong, the CEO of Far East Hospitality Management.

Upon arriving at the hotel, a tea ceremony at the lobby welcomes you to the hotel. After a swift contactless-check-in, a welcome amenity kit and complimentary refreshments await you in your room.

To keep things more colloquial, the hotel presents The Clan Daily Special, an intimate dining experience curated with local hawkers to bring you a uniquely Singapore meal. There's also a special role dubbed The Clan Keeper, a moniker for a personal concierge to attend to guests from the MASTER category. A variety of perks await, such as the option of an in-room check-in, all-day breakfast, luxurious bathroom amenities, as well as round-the-clock concierge services.

Another resident of the hotel? QIN Restaurant and Bar by TungLok Group, which takes up levels 4 and 5. Drink in the picturesque views of Telok Ayer while savouring local classics with a modern twist, such as Siphon Mushroom Tea, Chilled Crab Salad and San Mein.

From now to the 31st of May 2021, The Clan Hotel Singapore is offering an opening promotion for you to get the staycation you deserve. Book a stay anytime from the 1st of March to the 31st of May 2021, and enjoy 20% off any rooms from all series.
