

Singapore Tourism Awards 2022: Contributions During Covid-19

TD traveldaily.com/singapore-tourism-awards-2022-contributions-during-covid-19

May 25, 2022

Singapore Tourism Awards 2022: Contributions During Covid-19. -

35 individuals and organisations were recognised this evening at the Singapore Tourism Awards 2022 for demonstrating resilience, innovation and service excellence amidst the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic last year. Organised by the Singapore Tourism Board (STB), and held at the Shangri-La Hotel, the Singapore Tourism Awards presentation ceremony was graced by Mr Alvin Tan, Minister of State for Trade and Industry, and Culture, Community and Youth. STB Chief Executive Mr Keith Tan said: “The efforts of all the award finalists and recipients spur the entire tourism industry to greater achievements. Their spirit of resilience and creativity will become more important as we emerge from the pandemic to recapture demand and ensure Singapore remains a world-leading leisure and MICE destination.” There were 81 finalists for the Experience Excellence, Enterprise Excellence, Customer Service, Top and Special Awards categories this year.

The Clan Hotel was recognised as an Outstanding Hotel Experience. It developed multiple cross-sector collaborations, incorporating them into various services to provide guests with new and authentic experiences. Please refer to: • Annex A for a full list of the award recipients and finalists of the Singapore Tourism Awards 2022 Photo highlights from the awards ceremony will be available here from 24 May, 2200h. Please credit the images to Singapore Tourism Board. Click here to read: eTurboNews | eTN