From the moment you step into the serene second-floor lobby at The Clan Hotel Singapore by Far East Hospitality, it's easy to see you've arrived at someplace special. Those checking in are treated to the Welcome Tea Ceremony orchestrated by an in-house tea master, recalling a traditional clan ritual intended as a show of respect to visiting guests. In a high-ceilinged yet cozy space flooded with natural light, the notes and flavors of the specially curated brews tickle the palate. This Welcome Tea Ceremony is just part of a suite of unique experiences that are exclusive to the hotel.

Conveniently situated where the Lion City's skyscraper-filled Central Business District meets historic Chinatown, the sleek property occupies a streamlined glass-clad tower. Its interiors are a contemporary ode to traditional Chinese culture, alluding to the immigrant communities that settled and built new lives in the surrounding Telok Ayer area.

Staff members abide by a commitment to "take care of you like you are one of our very own." In this spirit of kinship, the goal is to have every guest come away feeling like family. Central to the experience is the hotel's invaluable team of personal concierges known as The Clan Keepers, who will endeavor to provide pampering and thoughtful service to those booked into MASTER Series rooms, tailor-made to their specific needs. The Clan Keepers aim to go the extra mile, whether by drawing an in-bath spa experience at just the right temperature or arranging transportation, ensuring the finer details of your stay are all taken care of.

Discerning travelers wanting to get under the skin of the Lion City should join a Local Precinct Tour, led by one of The Clan Keepers and offered exclusively to MASTER Series guests. This 45-minute excursion on foot will introduce you to hidden gems, cultural hot spots, and must-see historical landmarks within walking distance of the hotel, allowing you to discover the pulse of the immediate locale. The area's multicultural tapestry is reflected by a diverse crop of temples and stalls at nearby hawker centers.

Guests arriving at The Clan Hotel Singapore can enjoy the signature Welcome Tea Ceremony.

And there are plenty of ways to unwind at The Clan Hotel following a day's explorations. On the rooftop, perched 30 stories above the ground, the infinity-edge Sky Pool is the place to relax on a lounge and go for a swim as the sun sets over Singapore's skyline. A heated Jacuzzi pool offers a blissful soak that will have you feeling a million miles from the busy streets far below. The same floor is home to the well-equipped Sky Gym, where you can keep on top of your fitness routine and enjoy sweeping views of the cityscape through the floor-to-ceiling windows.

Even more privileges are afforded to guests staying in MASTER Series accommodation. Even before checking in, you'll be given the chance to pick five items from a list of premium products to go in a personalized minibar. Premier and Grand Premier rooms, both of which belong to the MASTER Series, have been designed as a den of sophistication. These elegantly appointed accommodations feature plush furnishings and details like beautifully made artisanal tea sets that allude to Singapore's Chinese heritage. The dual-aspect Grand Premier rooms also have a bathtub, and spacious bathrooms come with contemporary comforts (including heated electronic bidet seats). A special turndown service—featuring caffeine-free Cocoon Ritual tea with Emperor Bloom flowers—is provided in all MASTER Series rooms, while the curated pillow menu sets you up for a good night's sleep.

With its alluring blend of personalized comfort, detail-oriented approach to modern luxury, and experiences rooted in the surrounding neighborhood, The Clan Hotel allows you to appreciate Singapore from a whole new perspective.
