Tantalise Your Taste Buds with Delectable 6-Course Teochew Dinner at Zui Yu Xuan

Zui Yu Xuan

Guests can eagerly anticipate savouring local tradition and culture with every bite at Zui Yu Xuan. Nestled in the iconic district of Far East Square, this renowned restaurant offers a diverse selection of Teochew cuisine specialties, including ‘Ngoh Hiang.’

Inspired by Teochew culture, its grand facade boasts intricate wood carvings along the tiled roof, creating a sacred temple-like entrance for guests. Upon stepping inside the venerable courtyard, you will be greeted by what was once the foundation of the famed Chui Eng Free School, built in 1854. Surrounded by artistic pieces, guests can savour traditional Teochew cuisine, allowing them to truly immerse themselves in the heart and soul of Teochew heritage.

The menu that guests can look forward to includes Crispy Pork Rib Marinated with Plum Sauce, Wok-Fried ‘Mee Pok,’ Braised Duck with XO Sauce, Yam Paste with Pumpkin, Braised Fish Maw Soup with Crab Meat, and Teochew Appetiser Trio.

Get Creative with Supermama’s Blue-and-White Porcelain Plate Workshop

Supermama Workshop

To make your culinary adventure memorable, The Clan Hotel has partnered with Supermama, a homegrown design-led lifestyle store, for The Clan Uncovers: Culture and Cuisine Package.

Guests will be able to channel their inner creativity by crafting their own porcelain pieces from the brand's heritage collection using special locally-inspired designs. These designs highlight The Clan Hotel Singapore as well as other well-known historical elements, including traditional local food, culture, and architecture.

The blue-and-white porcelain workshop serves as a platform for guests to connect with the cultural legacy of Singapore, bridging the East and West.
