Located in close proximity to Raffles Place, Shenton Way and the Marina Bay area, this hotel offers easy access to major business centres, banks, and multinational corporations.

After a day of meetings, guests at The Clan Hotel Singapore by Far East Hospitality can explore the finest dining and entertainment venues around the hotel, making it perfect for hosting clients or unwinding in style.

And there is no better place to start off the night than at the hotel's QinRestaurant & Bar, where classics are reimaged with a modern take.

Thoughtfully designed elements

The bronze-coloured 30-storey tower with its 324 rooms is surrounded by the many shophouses in the Telok Ayer precinct. It represents a fusion of Singapore's storied past and its dynamic business present, offering you a sanctuary with depth and distinction.

Inside the hotel, its design, which seamlessly integrates traditional motifs with modern decor, creates a serene environment equally conducive for business and relaxation.

Memorabilia of yesteryears, such as an abacus set and traditional acupuncture tools, are peppered around the premises, paying tribute to Singapore's heritage through a polished chinoiserie theme.

Take the lobby's oversized, floor-to-ceiling display shelf – it artfully divides the reception and lounge areas.

Amid dark timber shelves and lantern-like lamps, a resident tea master offers a sensory welcome with fragrant teas and local snacks, crafting an inviting, homely ambiance that relaxes guests upon arrival.

Bespoke services for guests

The Clan Hotel excels in personalised services. Guests residing in the Master Series accommodation (Premier and Grand Premier rooms) can always approach The Clan Keepers for assistance.

These in-house advisors can provide personalised itineraries and assistance, from transportation arrangements to local business service recommendations.

They also conduct the local precinct tour for Master Series guests. The walking tour offers unique insights into Singapore's business landscape through its history and traditions, bringing guests to nearby cultural sites such as Fuk Tak Chi Museum and Buddha Tooth Relic Temple & Museum.

The PMET crowd will appreciate in-room amenities such as high-speed Wi-Fi and workstations as well as state-of-the-art entertainment systems for relaxation. (Photo: The Clan Hotel Singapore)

While recreational in nature, these tours also provide unconventional settings for networking or informal business meetings.

Should guests need a respite from their busy schedules, the rooms and suites at The Clan Hotel offer a opulent experience. Outfitted with ergonomic furniture and cutting-edge entertainment systems, these spaces are designed for optimal comfort, catering to your relaxation needs.
