

5 Best Staycations for Food Lovers in Singapore

T tatlerasia.com/dining/digest/best-staycations-for-food-lovers-in-singapore

Digest

Make the most out of your holiday with these premium food packages, eligible for SingapoRediscover vouchers

Relieve yourselves of life's stress and uncertainty with a well-deserved stay and dine. Contrary to popular belief, forking out extravagant dollars for plane tickets to distant lands is not a prerequisite for a luxury vacation. Singapore's own selection of acclaimed hotels welcomes locals to peruse their myriad of staycation options. Catering to our island's penchant for delicious cuisine, these packages have tied up with renowned outlets to provide all foodies and imbibers with a fun and satisfying getaway. Ranging from English tea delights to juicy steak courses and quality pours, our list of F&B-oriented deals promise you an unforgettable experience.

The Clan Hotel

Above Ibrahim Satay Power

Even modern-day 'seen-it-all' staycationers will marvel at The Clan Hotel's new experiential The Clan Uncovers: Craft and Cook package. Giving you access to the hotel's signature Master Series Premier Room, the package sets the scene for your expedition into the finer things in life. In addition to opulent, state-of-the-art facilities, you can explore the hotel's vicinity with the Local Precinct Tour, or learn a unique niche in the Master of Craft Sandal-making Workshop by Shoe Artistry.

To feed your appetite after such excitement, the hotel's acclaimed Qin Restaurant serves up a regal four-course dinner with a complimentary 'Concoction of the Day' for two. Helmed by talented and accomplished chefs James Tay and Nixon Low, the kitchen puts a twist on traditional culinary culture, offering reimagined Chinese classics like the Siphon Mushroom Tea, Chilli Crab Crostini and 'Sang Mein' Book, presented against an affectionate rustic rendition of Asian décor and a magnificent city view. Book here.

See also: The Clan Hotel Singapore: Hotel Staycation Review